CACHE Beautification Project

An exciting outdoor beautification project is underway at CACHE! The addition includes plantings of blue fescue, lemon grass, and Karl Foerster grass surrounded by a stone garden border edging, creating a defined boundary with visual interest.

This enhancement would not have been possible without the help of CACHE board members Charlie Stearns and Linda Gill. We would also like to thank Ben Weldon, Landscaping Contractor; Chris Mauer's leadership with the Exeter Garden Club; and the Exeter Union High School Ag Department for making this happen. Students Georgia Lockett and Hayley Ferguson of EUHS each received three community service hours. The collaboration was coordinated by Ag Instructor Kevy Mendez.

Another big thank you to Marshall Hovis, Exeter Eagles member, for continued lawn maintenance.

END-OF-YEAR GIVING CAMPAIGN

We would like to say how grateful we are for the support we receive from the local community through monetary contributions and volunteering throughout the year. While CACHE generates revenue from facility rentals and art sale commissions, we depend mainly on donations from generous supporters. Without you, we wouldn't be able to continue hosting quality art exhibitions, local history displays, or community events, so THANK YOU all!

We are proud of what has been accomplished this year and look forward to bringing you more quality exhibitions and events. Your contribution will be supporting CACHE's mission of bringing to life the art, culture, and history of California's heartland.

Please make your check out to CACHE and send to:

P.O. Box 253
Exeter, CA 93221

or scan the QR code with your smartphone to access the CACHE donation page. You can also visit our website, www.cach-exeter.org, and click the "Donate" button.

Our levels of giving are as follows: Monet: $100, Van Gogh: $250, O'Keefe: $500, and Picasso: $1,000, but all donations are welcome.

WE APPRECIATE YOUR CONTINUED SUPPORT!

We are now set up to accept gifts from your stock portfolio. Please check with your tax and financial advisors for the best way to make a year-end gift. All gifts are tax-deductible. Our 501(3)(c) number is 84-3738093.

“How to Draw” with Jana Botkin

CACHE hosted a drawing presentation by artist Jana Botkin on Tuesday, November 12 where there were approximately 20 people in attendance.

Jana told stories, showed examples, and explained the steps and tools she uses to draw. She then handed out a drawing exercise for people to try. It was a fun and informative evening that everyone thoroughly enjoyed. Thank you to all who attended.

Call for Abstract Artists

We are currently seeking abstract artwork submissions for our upcoming exhibit Opposites Attract. The deadline is December 28, 2024, and the exhibit will be on view from January 4 through March 29, 2025, with an opening reception on January 11 from 4:30 p.m. to 6:30 p.m. The event is free and open to the public.

All mediums and sizes are welcome. Please include a wire and eye hooks for hanging. Artwork drop-off is Saturday, December 28 from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Contact Robyn Stearns at robyn.stearns@verizon.net or 559-679-2474 with any questions.

Don't-Miss Events in December

Our classic cinema series concludes on December 2 at 6 p.m. with the holiday film It's a Wonderful Life. Original art and vintage jewelry will be for sale and desserts served to holiday music. Thank you to Lee and Aida Bartoletti for making this series a success!

Visit CACHE on Thursday, December 5 at 5 p.m. for The Gift of Art: CACHE Christmas Sale. Find a unique gift of original artwork for your loved one while enjoying hot chocolate, cookies, and Christmas carolers. Rides on the All-Aboard Train will also be available. We are currently accepting tax-deductible artwork donations to be dropped off at CACHE between the hours of 10 a.m. and 5 p.m. (W-F) or 12-4 p.m. (Sat.-Sun). Art will be accepted through Dec. 4, 2024.
